SIGNATURES

Although Venango Catholic High School is a distinctly Catholic school, it welcomes students of all backgrounds and does not discriminate against qualified students on the basis of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, disability, or age, as required by law, in the administration of its educational policies, admissions procedures, financial aid/scholarship rewards, and/or any other school administered programs.

While fulfilling financial commitments is a requirement for continued enrollment at Venango Catholic High School, the school does not use financial information to make decisions regarding admission.

By signing (paper application) or typing my name (electronic application), I certify that I have answered all these questions truthfully and to the best of my ability. I also give permission for Venango Catholic High School to request and receive all pertinent records from the prospective student's current school of attendance.
